My ASME Preferences

ASME strives to send you information you want to receive and that is most relevant to your personal and professional interests.

Please indicate your communication preferences, using the options below, to select the topics for which you would like to continue to receive communications from ASME. Your selections will be used to notify you of relevant offerings, products, services, conferences, and society news and updates via phone, postal, email or other electronic means. You can update your preferences or withdraw your consent to receive communications at any time by selecting the email's "Unsubscribe" link included in email communications or contacting ASME Customer Care at customer care@asme.org.

Declaration of Consent

By checking the boxes below, I consent to ASME collecting, processing, reviewing, and transferring personal data (including to the extent described above, sensitive personal data) relating to me in connection with the processing activities described above.

I also consent to the transfer of any such data outside of the country in which I live or where the personal data has been collected or processed, including specifically to the United States for the purposes described above, even where the country or territory in question does not maintain data protection standards which are equivalent to those which apply in my home country.

I understand that this consent is voluntary and can be revoked at any time.

Step 4 – Email Confirmation

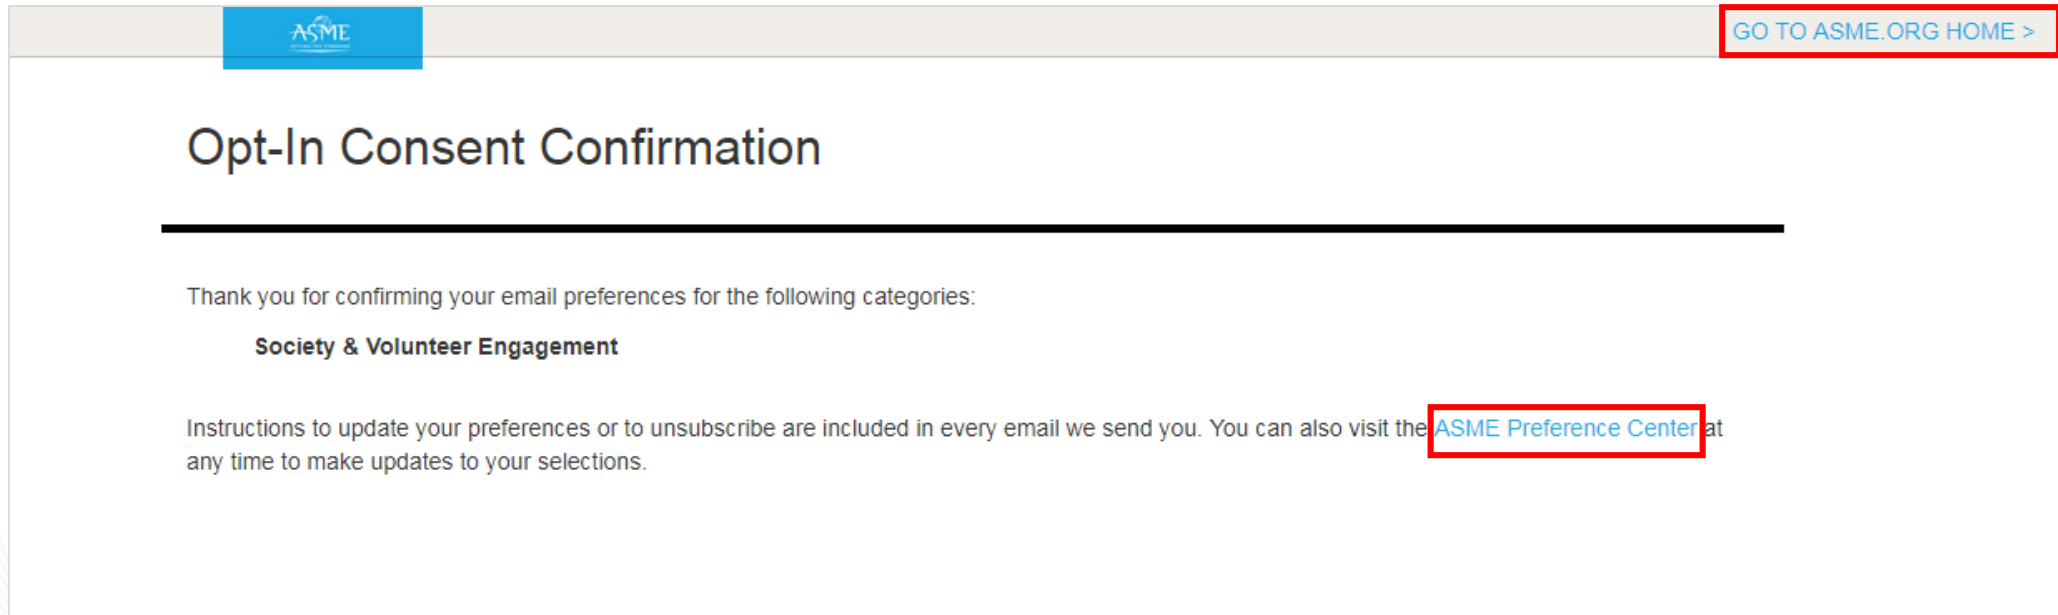

Confirm your selected opt-in preferences. Click on the Confirm button from the confirmation e-mail you receive.

This step is CRUCIAL. You must complete this step and Confirm your selected preferences. If this step is not completed you will not receive emails.

Step 5 – Thank You

You will be directed to a thank you page. There is no action to take at this point. You can go back to the preference center if you want to make additional updates or go to the ASME homepage.
