

Offers a tour of:

Tuesday, October 28, 2014, 5:30 pm

Established in 1968, Decisive Testing is the largest laboratory in San Diego. Types of testing include: radiography, non-destructive testing, chemical analysis, vacuum testing, mechanical testing, hardness testing, metallography, and failure analysis. State-of-the-art analytical equipment and instruments include: X-Ray Fluorescence (XRF) units, optical emission spectrometers (OES), and Scanning Electron Microscopy (SEM) Imaging. Materials tested include: metals, polymers, and concrete. Industries served include: aerospace, petrochemical, construction, power, and environmental. Clients include: private industry, military, and government at every level.

Take advantage of this tour by bringing in your questions and materials that you want to have analyzed. Examples include: old coins, leaking pipes, broken shafts, valves, bearings, fasteners, and welds.

Location: 4735 Myrtle Ave, San Diego, 92105, 619-285-9006

Time: 5:30 pm, Pizza, Salad, and Tour

Cost: $10 for Members, Guests, and Students

RSVP: by 5 pm on Oct 24 HERE or email sandiego.asme@gmail.com

