

Offers a Tour of:

Heber Complex, A Geothermal Power Plant in the Imperial Valley (plant website)
947 Dogwood Road, Heber CA 92249
Owned and Operated by Ormat Technologies (wikipedia)

Saturday, February 21, 2015

Get a close and personal look at geothermal power! Learn what it takes to produce power and deal with the corrosive geological environment.

Cost: $30 per person, to cover lunch and transportation. Cash only, pay at event. No-shows will be billed at full price.

Meet at the Park-N-Ride off Interstate 805 at Governor Drive (NW corner of intersection)

7:30 Meet up - sign in, accept payment, take lunch orders
8:00 Leave rendezvous site
10:00 Arrive at site, tour begins
13:00 Approximate end of tour, begin travel to lunch
13:15 Arrive lunch
14:45 End lunch, begin drive home
17:00 Arrive in SD

Transportation: Provided, final details are being arranged. Relax and enjoy some company on the drive out.

Food: A group lunch at Rosa's Plane Food. Tour hosts will be invited; socialize with them and fellow tour attendees.

Clothing: Close toed shoes and long pants required. Hard hat and eye protection provided, but please bring your own if you have them. The tour will be both outdoors and indoors, dress appropriately.

RSVP: <http://goo.gl/forms/URdtlofZEx> or email sandiego.asme@gmail.com
RSVP by Monday February 16th 9:00 AM
Early RSVPs appreciated

Although we anticipate having room for everyone we may implement an attendance cap. If this happens priority will be given to those who sign up first.

ASME extends a special invitation to ASM and AWS members. Members of all societies are encouraged to invite anyone interested in a technical tour, including spouses, friends and coworkers.